

Ticket information

Individual screenings:

£10 / £6 concessions

Concessions apply to: under 30s, 60+, SJT Circle members, SJT Access Register customers, NHS staff/carers with a green CARE badge and Blue Light cardholders.

Kid's events:

Song of the Sea: £3

Workshops: FREE but please book to guarantee your place

Festival Passes: entry to the whole festival!

Please note: passes can only be booked in person or over the phone.

Supporters Pass £100
(access to all events & your name published with thanks on the Festival website and social media)

Standard Pass £60

Concession Pass £40

Tickets can be booked online at www.sjt.uk.com
or via the SJT Box Office on 01723 370541

SCARBOROUGH
FILM FESTIVAL

The venues

 SJT
Westborough, YO11 1JW

 Woodend Gallery & Studios
The Crescent, YO11 2PW

 SeaGrown
Harbour, MV Southern Star
Vincent Pier, YO11 1PH

 Scarborough
Railwayman's
Social Club
Station Buildings,
Westborough, YO11 1TN

9 - 12 November

A brand new, four day festival bringing a diverse array of films to the festival hub at the SJT's McCarthy cinema and other venues across Scarborough.

In association with

SJT Stephen
Joseph
Theatre

Bait + The Tide

Thu 9 Nov, 5pm
McCarthy, SJT

A night of films explore the tensions faced by coastal communities. Stunningly shot on a vintage 16mm camera, Bait is a timely and funny, yet poignant film. It's followed by locally made short The Tide, charting the fate of a rusting trawler and its beleaguered crew. Followed by Q&A with cast & crew of The Tide.

15+ | 1h 45m + Q&A

Can I Live?

Thu 9 Nov, 8pm
McCarthy, SJT

A vital new digital performance about the climate catastrophe. Weaving his story with spoken word, rap, theatre, animation and the scientific facts, Fehinti charts a course through the fundamental issues underpinning the emergency. Followed by Q & A with writer & performer Fehinti Balogun. In partnership with Complicité

12+ | 1h + Q&A

Caribbean Pop-Up Cinema

Fri 10 Nov, 1.45pm
McCarthy, SJT

This collection of varied, stirring stories from around the Caribbean showcases the richness of culture, language and experiences in portraits from Bahamas, Cuba, Jamaica, Trinidad and Tobago and Martinique.

Presented in Partnership with Caribbean International Film Festival and curated by Denyce Blackman.

18 | 1h 5m

Revive

Sat 11 Nov, 7.45pm
McCarthy, SJT

Environmental archive film from the Yorkshire and North East Film Archive's current 'Nature Matters' project, given new music or spoken word scores by five performers with links to Scarborough. Expect an exciting night of live music and spoken word and the chance to see archive film through a new lens.

1h 15m

Stories of the Sea: Artist Moving Image

Sun 12 Nov, 11am
SeaGrown

Explore the work of artists who have focused on communities living in or near the sea. Join us for a screening of Julia Parks' 'Seaweed Stories' and Webb-Ellis's 'For The First Baby Born in Space'. Followed by Q&A with the artists.

1h 15m

So, Which Band Is Your Boyfriend In?

Sun 12 Nov, 4pm
Railway Institute

An exploration of the real-life experiences of non-male participants in UK DIY and underground music scenes. This film investigates what can be done to make music more accessible to everyone, regardless of gender. Followed by Q&A with local musicians.

In collaboration with

15 | 1h 37m

Queer Shorts: Liquid Thoughts

Fri 10 Nov, 5.30pm
Woodend/Art Gallery

A series of short films that explore themes of water and queerness. Showing in collaboration with the current exhibition 'Always Been Here' - a partnership between Scarborough Museums and Galleries and Crescent Arts.

18 | 1h 5m

The Old Oak

Fri 10 Nov, 8pm
McCarthy, SJT

In a once thriving North-East mining community stands The Old Oak, a pub kept afloat by a few remaining locals. When a group of Syrian refugees arrive tensions rise, but an unlikely union forms between the pub's affable landlord and an aspiring young photographer. Speculated to be Ken Loach's final film. Followed by Q&A with lead actor Dave Turner.

15 | 1h 30m

Yorkshire Shorts

Sat 11 Nov, 3pm
McCarthy, SJT

A competition selection of short films with a link to our region. The festival was inundated with exceptional films; the curation team has chosen a selection of their favourites. An expert panel of industry judges will announce the winner and runner-up after the screening, followed by a Q&A with the panel.

2h

Babylon (1980)

Sun 12 Nov, 7pm
Railway Institute

While hoping to win a Sound System competition, Blue fights against the struggles he faces as a Black man in 1980s Britain. Featuring a raucous reggae soundtrack, Babylon is a potent mix of music and social realism. Followed by a live dub set by Rebel Radics Soundsystem, who will also give a brief introduction.

In collaboration with

15 | 1h 35m

For the kids!

Song of the Sea (2014)

Sat 11 Nov, 10am
McCarthy, SJT

This enchanting Irish animation tells the story of Ben and his little sister Saoirse - the last Seal-child - who embark on a fantastic journey across a fading world of ancient legend and magic in an attempt to return to their home by the sea.

PG | 1h 33m

Kids Animation Workshop: Make a Thaumatrope!

Sat 11 Nov, 11.45am - 1.30pm
Boden Room, SJT | Drop-in session

Learn the basic mechanics of animating and make your very own thaumatrope (a spinning toy which creates an illusion) inspired by the The Song of the Sea with children's author and self-taught animator Terenia Edwards. Perfect for families - recommended for 4+.

